Deputy Assistant Secretary for Security
Department of State

FROM: Deputy Director for Plans

SUBJECT: Activities of American Trotskyites David Horowitz and Ralph Rosenbaum in the United Kingdom

2. American Trotskyist David Horowitz<sup>1</sup> has resigned as Director of Research and Publications for the BRPF after an argument over his lack of enthusiasm for various jobs which were assigned to him in connection with the Vietnam Solidarity Campaign.<sup>2</sup> In any case, Horowitz and his family plan to return to the United States in the summer of 1967.

3. The Vietnam Solidarity Campaign is now officially separate from the International War Crimes Tribunal and the BRPF. The Campaign is now being led by David Robinson, a New Zealander, who was planning a mobilization on Vietnam of leftist youth in London on 22 April 1967 to support the Tribunal. Rosenbaum claimed to know Robinson's father, a member of the Communist Party of New Zealand, when he (Rosenbaum) was in New Zealand.

4. Ralph Rosenbaum stated that he is being deported in July 1967 from the United Kingdom, inasmuch as there is little hope that the UK Home Office would reverse its decision on his expulsion. If he could be certain that he would not be arrested because of his anti-Zionist lectures in the UK,<sup>3</sup> he had thought of going to Israel to live for a period of time. However, Rosenbaum said that he might eventually go to New Zealand where his former wife and daughters now live.

b1 It is requested that no action be taken on the basis of this information without prior coordination with this agency.

Comments:

1. Horowitz has been listed as one of the members of the Tribunal Preparatory Committee.
2. Jeanne Pynor Langi, editor of the Bulletin of the News, Information and Features Agency in London, reported that Horowitz claimed he was merely out of the Vietnam Solidarity Campaign and the practical politicking involved with it; however, he still has his job as BRPF Director of Research and Publication. He is finishing a book on Marxist ideology which would include material on the present Sino-Soviet dispute.
3.  Comment: Rosenbaum earns pocket money by giving lectures against Zionism and Israel to schools, clubs and other groups in the UK; he has often debated Israeli speakers.
